

ONE CENT--LAST EDITION--ONE CENT

ALL TODAY'S NEWS IN A NUTSHELL
EASY TO READ ON CAR GOING HOME

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 88

Chicago, Tuesday, January 11, 1916

398

ILL. MAN. ASS'N FOLKS HAVE A NICE DAY OF IT--NOT!

Four Members Draw Fines for Violations of Labor Laws
That Were Meant to Benefit Men, Women and Children.

The Illinois Manufacturers' ass'n got a wallop in its mighty jaw this morning in Judge Wells' courtroom. It was one of that kind of wallops that the big bosses in the business world like to dodge. It dealt with rank violations of proper treatment to men, women and little children. It handed a straight-from-the-shoulder nasty slap at four employers who belong to the Illinois Manufacturers' ass'n.

The Central Bag Co. at 1545 W. 35th st. was nicked for $190 by Judge Wells. Theo. Heitman, the manager, is a regular dues-paying member of the Ill. Man. ass'n. His company at the present time is making burlap bags for the allies. And therein lies the main reason, probably, for the violations on which the fine resulted. Our perfectly good child labor law calls for an eight-hour day for mere